More Than One Story

Instructions: Answer this prompt by drawing in the box provided.

Imagine a neighborhood is holding an annual cultural festival. There is live music, food prepared by local families and restaurants, dancing, artwork, activities for children, and people of different generations gathering together. Some people have attended the festival for years, while others are experiencing it for the first time.

Select a perspective: for example, teenager, grandparent, first-time visitor, etc and answer these prompts:

- SEES: What might this person notice?
- THINKS: What might be important to this person?
- FEELS: How might this person feel? Why?
